News and Important Dates:

- The March is Reading Month activities are here! We met today at an all-school assembly where Mrs. McNeilly read the first chapter of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory and the rules of the month were explained. Check out the all-school newsletter for more. Your child's "golden tickets" to earn from reading at home are in his/her Friday folder. Turn in this week's tickets on Thursday, March 7.
- Don't forget, there is no school Tuesday, March 5 for religious teacher professional development.
- Optional parent/teacher conference confirmations are in your child's Friday folder. Please double check the time, and we'll see you then!
- We are leading stations of the cross Friday, March 8 at 1:05 in the church. Each child has an assignment, whether it is reading and/or illustrating a station. We'll do the illustrations in class, but please help your child practice the reading if he/she has volunteered for that role.
