News and Important Dates:

- I want to thank everyone for your patience and understanding this week as I was down in Indiana for my grandmother's funeral arrangements and services. Your children have shown so much love and support these past few weeks, and that has meant the world to me!
- There was a little mix-up about spelling homework while I was out, so I apologize! Spelling assignments are due the next day since I assign them one at a time. This is a little different than how I do vocabulary and how your child did spelling homework last year, so I get the confusion!
- Your child has states and capitals flash cards now for the Midwest Region on bright yellow notecards. Please have your child keep these in his/her homework folder and remind them to study them at home.
- Picture retakes are on Wednesday, September 27.
- Friday, September 29 is a free dress day.
- There's no school Monday, October 2 and Tuesday, October 3 as teachers attend professional development.
